Problem Activity - Day 1

Scenario:

Imagine you are a legal professional working in a mid-sized law firm. Your firm is facing a significant challenge: a growing number of clients are dissatisfied with the lengthy and convoluted legal processes, leading to a surge in client attrition. Clients complain about unclear communication, delays, and the overall lack of transparency in the legal services they receive. Your firm's reputation is on the line, and innovative solutions are needed to transform this situation.

Task 1: Empathy Mapping

- List down the key stakeholders: clients, lawyers, administrative staff.
- Create individual empathy maps for each stakeholder group. For each group, jot down their needs, feelings, and behaviours based on your understanding of their perspective.

Task 2: Problem Definition

- Analyze the empathy maps and identify recurring issues across stakeholder groups.
- Define the core problem succinctly in 2-3 sentences. Be specific about the problem's nature, considering both emotional and practical aspects.

Task 3: Ideation Session

- Brainstorm ideas individually without limitations. Consider both conventional and unconventional solutions.
- Choose the top three ideas that you believe have the most potential to address the defined problem.
- For each chosen idea, briefly describe how it addresses the core problem and why you think it's viable.
